

Feminism is a belief that women were treated unfairly in the society formed to prioritize men's perspective and interest. Feminism is also a movement that is always dynamic and diverse measures.